

THE GLASSHOUSE PRESENTS...

Sunday 20 september at 15.00 in Theater Bellevue in Amsterdam

After the lunch performance of WATERKOU The Glasshouse opens it's doors to show what's going on in the house.

Marijn van der Jagt (Vrij Nederland) will interview the two people behind The Glasshouse Kees Roorda and Catherine Henegan, and chat to them about their upcoming performances
Titus Muizelaar is the master of ceremonies

Meet the makers, partake in the conversation and join us for a drink after the program

JITSVINGER

Kees Roorda will talk about his new performance which revolves around a solar eclipse
Roorda travelled to China earlier this year to experience the phenomenn first hand
See some of his fascinating interviews with locals who also witnessed the event
Get a specialist perspective on the subject from a guest astrologer

Catherine Henegan has invited two guest artists from Cape Town, South Africa for this event
Hiphop poet extraordinaire JITSVINGER and jazz pianist & composer KYLE SHEPHERD who will be performing on the program
Here you will get a taste of the performance that Henegan is making in South Africa which premieres in April 2010

KYLE SHEPHERD

The Glasshouse presents - Zondag 20 September om 15.00. Toegang gratis.
Wel graag reserveren via de kassa op 020-5305301 of via www.theaterbellevue.nl

Waterkou van The Glasshouse Lunchvoorstelling met Hans Dagelet en Rixt Leddy wegens succes opnieuw te zien in Theater Bellevue van di.15 t/m zo. 20 september om 12.30 uur